

Ringvorlesung – Lecture Series

Heterodoxie in der VWL – Current research topics in heterodox economics

Every Wednesday,
4:15 pm
at ZHG103

- |          |   |          |  |
|----------|---|----------|--|
| 18/10/17 | Introduction to Heterodox Economics   | 06/12/17 | Thinking about Development holisticallyProf. Sanjay ReddyThe New School of Social Research |
| 25/10/17 | From Pluralism in Economics to Economicsas a Transformative ScienceFlorian RommelCusanus Hochschule   | 13/12/17 | Unthinking Economics:A Post-Development PerspectiveProf. Aram ZiaiUniversity of Kassel |
| 01/11/17 | Introduction to Cambridge SchoolEconomics   | 20/12/17 | Introduction to Economicsof Inequality   |
| 08/11/17 | The Cambridge Approach to Economics:The contribution of Keynes, Sraffa, Khanand RobinsonProf. Maria Cristina MarcuzzoUniversity of Rome | 10/01/18 | Income and Wealth Inequalityin Germany, 1871 - 2015Dr. Charlotte BartelsDIW Berlin     |
| 15/11/17 | Introduction to Post-Growth Economics   | 17/01/18 | Introduction to Feminist Economics   |
| 22/11/17 | Beyond GDP – A critical assessment ofalternative welfare measuresProf. Hans DiefenbacherUniversity of Heidelberg                            | 24/01/18 | Gender in Economy-Wide ModellingMarzia FontanaLondon School of Economics                   |
| 29/11/17 | Introduction to Heterodox DevelopmentEconomics  | 31/01/18 | Panel Discussion: Developmentbetween Model and Reality   |

Organized and carried out by Kritische Wirtschaftswissenschaften Göttingen
<http://www.kriwigoe.de>

Supervised by the chair of Statistics and the chair of Development Economics
Financially supported by the faculty of Economics

The idea of the lecture series is to provide non-mainstream content of economics which is not taught throughout a regular Bachelor or Master program. Both Bachelor and Master students who study economics (BWL, VWL, Development, International) can count the credit points (6 CP) within their elective subjects. Students of other faculties please consult their examination office.

For more information, please contact Franziska Dorn (fdorn@uni-goettingen.de) or Dr. Alexander Silbersdorff (asilbersdorff@uni-goettingen.de).